Introductions

- 17 members were present at the meeting
- Members talked about their name, position in UFFAB, and what they are studying

Review of the Bylaws

- Marie talked about the UFFAB Bylaws
- Website has been updated, <https://uffab.colostate.edu/>
- Membership needs to be increased to fill in empty spots
- Attendance is extremely important this semester
- Weekly meetings will be from 5pm-7pm every Thursday
- Must get through all proposals by April 4th, 2022
- The spreadsheet with the ranking of the proposals needs to be completed by the second to last meeting
- We have been given $1.7 million to work with this semester
- Reviewed funding rules

Vote of Legitimacy

- There will be multiple proposals each week, and members take a vote as to whether or not they think it should be considered for the final review
- Must ensure that the proposals are directly benefiting students
- Alison added that we need to take factors such as sustainability, cost, availability of funds, etc. into consideration
- Karin to send out proposal schedule on the Monday before every meeting

Discussion Points

- Simon made a recommendation for the website: there should be a quick lookup for what has been funded and what has not been funded
- Tom suggested adding a column where people can see the history of projects with two categories: 'completed' and 'those submitted and not yet approved'
- Karin gave the idea of adding a third subtab for 'proposals accepted by college' and adding a pie chart to show the distribution
- Thomas suggested putting up pictures of the projects that have been completed after receiving the funding
